Once again CARMARTHEN YOUTH OPERA came up trumps with their production of "ANNIE" and with a double cast of orphans. The night I went Annie was played by Nerys Williams.

Wynne Evans was an excellent Oliver Warbucks with Margaret Collins giving another fine performance as his secretary, Grace Farnell. Good, meaty acting parts are few and far between but Rhianydd Davies made the most of the role of Miss Hannigan. Mark Williams was superb as Rooster Hannigan ably partnered by Karen Evans as Lily.

Together with the rest of the large cast and chorus and under the baton of Musical Director, John Morgan, with the Youth Opera Orchestra this was a show to remember. Producer, Elizabeth Evans with Choreographer Helen Croker and all the staff have again earned their standing ovation.
