Carmarthen Youth Opera's production of "Grease" slipped smoothly into top gear at the "Lyric Theatre", a performance that was fully appreciated by a very enthusiastic audience. "Pink Ladies", "Burger Palace Boys" and High School pupils aided by an excellent band of musicians made sure the evening went with a swing. A simple but very effective set made the changes smooth and easy.

There were so many good characterisations amongst the very good cast that it would be difficult to say one was any better than the other - from Sian Williams in her principal debut to Mark Evans, doyen of the company and now at the Guildhall School. All were a credit to Producer Elizabeth Evans and Choreographer Helen Craker with the band under John Morgan, Musical Director, linking the whole in fine style.

A very excellent evening out for Mavis and myself with our thanks to Secretary, Mrs. Reid for looking after us.
