CARMARTHEN YOUTH OPERA'S production of 'HANS ANDERSEN' was my first regional visit of this year and once again it showed what a talented company they are. With an excellent cast of principals well supported by a senior and junior chorus, Elizabeth Evans' production was very slick and colourful.

Mark Evans in his last role with the Youth Opera made the most of the lead, Hans Anderson and Nicky Humphries sang delightfully as the prima donna, Jenny Lind. Mark Williams as Otto Pedersen gave a polished and well acted performance. Margaret Collins and Wynne Evans as Madame Meisling and Rector were at their best in their scenes with the children. A fine night's entertainment all round with, to me, the prisoners chorus the highlight of the show.
