Autumn 1991

February again saw another fine presentation of "Oliver" by CARMARTHEN YOUTH OPERA. It is always a pleasure to see this versatile company in action at the Lyric Theatre and it is not at all surprising that they were voted "most popular show" at last years Newport Festival. This year they were once more to the fore with successes by Mark Evans, Mark Williams and Michael Wray. What better tribute could the Youth Opera give to their Producer Elizabeth Evans ?
